Manifesting Your Most Compatible Soul Mate

With Valentine's day fast approaching, many people are wanting to attract that special person to share their lives with. This can be a stressful process, with lots of soul searching, wondering where you have gone wrong, and thinking that you are destined to be alone. Others have in fact manifested exactly who they asked for, but have found that they are not exactly what they wanted.

What is the best way to get it right? Well, start by knowing what qualities you want this person to have. What is important to you? Gender, species, sexuality are always a great place to start, then move on to characteristics that will keep the relationship moving in a positive direction, e.g. interests, hobbies, sports. Another strategy to manifest your most compatible soul mate is to see if you have any blocks e.g. Is it easier to look for them, than it is to work on building a relationship with them, Will you know what to do with them when you get them?? Is your list accidentally on purpose too impractical to get what you want? Do you even love yourself, if you don't, how can anyone else? Are you in love with yourself. Are you afraid of deep intimacy? Does love equal pain, hurt, rejection? Do you know how to share all that you have? So when you are manifesting your most compatible soul mate, just remember that you just need to be clear on who it is you are attracting.

And of course always be aware that you are manifesting a real person, they are already out there with their own life going on before you meet. There may be some work to do and it will be well worth it.

Note: The Soul Mate manifestation is featured in the ThetaHealing™ Book pages 172 - 175

Congratulations to the new ThetaHealing™ Teachers

Pauline and Rae both spent time on the Gold Coast recently assisting Vianna with her ThetaHealing™ Teachers courses. The girls really enjoyed meeting the new teachers and reconnecting with the teachers that were recertifying.

The Theta Devas have already been visited by a few new teachers that were keen to experience a behind the scenes look at teaching a ThetaHealing™ course.

We are looking forward to working with you all to actively raise the profile of ThetaHealing™ throughout Australasia and the world.

Congratulations on your achievements and we welcome you to the ThetaHealing™ Teachers Community.

Belief Busters :

Issue: I really hate digging. When I was taught to dig, my teacher said that the only question that I need to ask is "What is the worst thing about that?" But Vianna uses a different method in the Advanced Book. Which is the right way?

Answer: It is funny to wonder who is right, your teacher or Vianna, but I was also taught the same way and used it extensively until I saw Vianna dig and I realized that something was amiss. Vianna uses a number of questions that utilize "who, what, where, when, why and how". This method gets the practitioner and the client out of their heads and into the emotion of the issue. The Advanced ThetaHealing™ Book has 57 pages dedicated to digging. Read this book and it will clear up any issues that you have with digging. It just takes practice to build up your confidence. Digging can be a lot of fun and is such a safe and clever way to get to the bottom belief. Have fun with it.

"100 Reader Theory" :

With the year starting off with one of the most devastating Natural Disasters of our time, we continue to send love to the people of Haiti and we would like to also concentrate our efforts on sending love to our Mother Earth. She is in dire need of some healing energy as well. So this month remember to send love to our delicate Mother Earth.

Quotes of the Month:

"The ultimate test of a relationship is to disagree but hold hands."

Here is a little "taster" of our recent blog post:

Spiritual Messages in Modern Media

So many people say to me that they are waiting for a sign or a message from the Creator, The Universe etc but they never seem to get them. This is an interesting dilemma. Is it that there isn't a message being sent or is it that the person is not open to receiving it? Or do they just try to over think it or over analyse it. People really start to doubt the existence of God because they think that it is a ...
